City of South Fulton Launches New Original Web Series “South Fulton 101”

Web Series Will Feature Officials and Departments throughout the City of South Fulton Government

(CITY OF SOUTH FULTON, GA) – On Saturday, March 2, 2019 the City of South Fulton will launch “South Fulton 101,” a monthly 30-minute webinar hosted by the City’s executive staff. This monthly interactive offering will educate residents on an array of services and initiatives pertaining to the City of South Fulton. South Fulton 101 serves as another example of the City of South Fulton’s commitment to enhance communication, outreach, and service delivery to residents and businesses.

“We are excited to launch this interactive community engagement platform, which we are confident will give residents more insight and access into the inner-workings of municipal government” states City Manager Odie Donald II. “South Fulton 101’ highlights the City’s continued efforts to engage our community and ensure our residents are fully in the know.”

The first episode of “South Fulton 101” will feature information on the City’s 24-hour Citizen Response Center (CRC) and 311 Mobile and Web Applications. These two tools are ways in which residents can directly receive updates and communication from the City and city officials. Additional series topics will include: Code Enforcement, Police Services, Fire Services, Permitting, Parks & Recreation administered STEM Programming, Economic Development, Doing Business with the City South Fulton among other topics.

“South Fulton 101” will be available on the City of South Fulton Website, Facebook and YouTube channel. For updates on episodes and information visit, <http://www.cityofsouthfultonga.gov/>.
