District 4 Councilwoman Naeema Gilyard In Partnership with Renaissance Middle School Artisan Bazaar A Family Affair

(CITY OF SOUTH FULTON, GEORGIA, April 23, 2019) – District 4 Councilwoman Naeema Gilyard in partnership with Renaissance Middle School will host an Artisan Bazaar on Saturday, April 27, 2019 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm at Renaissance Middle School. The school is located at 7155 Hall Rd. Fairburn, GA 30213.

Guests attending this Saturday’s event will view unique hand-crafted art created by students and teachers from Renaissance Middle School, Arlington Christian School and Creekside High School.

“This fun event brings arts to our community. Art is important to the development of our children. They learn about themselves through art, it develops their motor skills, and helps them to express themselves. I am happy to partner with these outstanding schools to host such an event,” said District 4 Councilwoman Naeema Gilyard.

Residents are encouraged to come out and support the community’s youth as they display their talents through art. Attendees will also enjoy good food, good music and participate in a day of family fun. Kids can also enjoy face painting, jumping on the bounce house and games.

The Renaissance Middle School PTA, and the Habanero Grill Food Truck will be providing snacks and food. Music will be provided by the Langston Hughes High School Marching Band and the Kenito Trio. Looking for a day filled with family-fun, music, good food and art? You don’t want to miss this Artisan Bazaar – It’s a Family Affair!
