CITY OF SOUTH FULTON ANNOUNCES SWEARING-IN OF 5 NEW POLICE OFFICERS

The First Officers Hired Directly by the City of South Fulton

[CITY OF SOUTH FULTON, GEORGIA, July 9th --] The City of South Fulton invites you to the swearing-in ceremony for five new Police Officers. The ceremony will take place at City Hall located at 5440 Fulton Industrial Blvd, S.W., Atlanta, GA 30336.

“Our Police Department is focused on addressing the specific public safety needs of the South Fulton community,” stated Mayor Bill Edwards. “We are proud to welcome the first Officers hired and sworn in directly by the City of South Fulton and we are working to hire many more.”

“One of our public safety priorities is to increase the overall public safety presence across the City and reduce response times,” stated City Manager Odie Donald II. “Swearing in five new Officers is a big step in the direction of accomplishing that priority.”

The hiring strategy followed an extensive process to identify qualified potential applicants, without lowering the standards necessary to provide the highest level of public safety service possible.

“I am confident that these officers will continue and strengthen the level of service that residents, businesses and visitors of the City of South Fulton deserve,” stated Interim Chief Sheila Rogers.
