City of South Fulton Leaders Recognized in Who's Who in Black Atlanta 18th Edition

(CITY OF SOUTH FULTON, GEORGIA, Tuesday, September 11) On Friday, September 21, 2018 District 1 Councilwoman Dr. Catherine Foster Rowell, District 2 Councilwoman Carmalitha Gumbs and City Manager Odie Donald II will be awarded during the Who's Who in Black Atlanta 18th Edition Unveiling Ceremony.

District 1 Councilwoman Dr. Catherine Foster Rowell is currently employed with Fulton County Schools, has worked in the nonprofit sector and served as Executive Director of Operation PEACE; Senior Government Grants Manager for Families First; and Senior Program Director with Enterprise Community Partners. Additionally, she has held leadership roles in a number of public-sector consulting firms to include Beacon Analytics, the Bronner Group and MAXIMUS consulting firm.

District 2 Councilwoman Carmalitha Gumbs, a marketing and communications executive, has career highlights that include working for organizations including Humana, Inc., The Collaborative Firm, DeKalb County Local Government, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and JenCare Senior Medical Centers. Over the course of her career, she has advocated for at-risk youth, families and seniors as a social worker and fought to stimulate economic development within her community.

“While I am honored to be recognized, I am more excited that the people at Who's Who in Black Atlanta recognize the positive impact that the City of South Fulton has on the Atlanta Metropolitan region and the positive direction that we are going in as a new City,” stated City Manager Odie Donald II. Mr. Donald also received this award in 2016 as the State Director for the Georgia Dept of Economic Development.

The ceremony and reception will be held at the Atlanta Marriott Marquis in Downtown Atlanta.
