Details: (City of South Fulton, GA – May 18, 2020) – As we continue to manage through the COVID-19 pandemic, City of South Fulton Mayor William “Bill” Edwards is going online to speak with residents through Virtual Chat With the Mayor on May 22.

Edwards will team up with City Manager Odie Donald II and new Fulton County District Health Director Dr. Lynn Paxton for a conversation with residents to answer questions and share COVID-19 updates, city activities, new projects and upcoming events.

The virtual town hall, the second of the year for Edwards, will take place on Friday, May 22 at 11 a.m.

“We have overcome great challenges as a city in our first three years and COVID-19 is no exception,” said Edwards. “I encourage residents to join us virtually to learn about our response and hear the steps Fulton County officials are taking to combat the virus.”

Residents can submit their questions in advance by emailing Deloris Baskin at Deloris.Baskin@cityofsouthfultonga.gov. For more information, visit www.cityofsouthfultonga.gov.
