Details: (City of South Fulton, GA – May 18, 2020) – South Fulton leaders continue what is now a month-long initiative aimed to assist those impacted by the COVID-19 crisis.

This week, the mayor and city council will partner with the Atlanta Community Food Bank, the Atlanta Suburban Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Siloam Church International, Coca Cola Bottling Company and State Farm to distribute food to South Fulton residents.

“Our city continues to go to great lengths to lend assistance with not only medical and testing needs, but nutritional needs,” Edwards said. “We are committed to ensuring families have the proper nourishment throughout this pandemic.”

Residents will be able to drive through the site to safely pick up food, which will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis.

“I am grateful for our partners’ support in providing food to the South Fulton community and gear for volunteers,” said Willis. “These partnerships will help us supply the demand of food for residents who have been impacted by the COVID-19 crisis.”

The food distribution will take place at Welcome All Park at 4255 Will Lee Road South Fulton, GA 30349 on Thursday, May 28 from 11 a.m. until food is gone. For more information, contact LaShandra Little at Lashandra.Little@cityofsouthfultonga.gov or (404) 670-9619. #COSFGA #WhereYouWantToBe
