When: Friday, June 12 – 11 a.m.

Where: Welcome All Park at 4255 Will Lee Road South Fulton, GA 30349

Details: (City of South Fulton, GA – June 10, 2020) – This Friday, South Fulton leaders will partner for a sixth week to assist residents impacted by the COVID-19 crisis in a community food distribution called Feeding the City of South Fulton. Residents will be able to drive through the site to safely pick up food, which will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis.

This week, the city will partner with the Atlanta Community Food Bank, Solid Rock Pentecostal Church, Cigna, Coca Cola Bottling Company and State Farm.

“Our city continues to go to great lengths to lend assistance with not only medical and testing needs, but nutritional needs,” Mayor William “Bill” Edwards said. “We are committed to ensuring families have the proper nourishment throughout this pandemic.”

“I am grateful for our partners’ support in providing food to the South Fulton community and gear for volunteers,” said Councilwoman Helen Z. Willis. “These partnerships will help us supply the demand of food for residents who have been impacted by the COVID-19 crisis.”
