City of South Fulton Mayor William Bill Edwards Hosts Public Safety Press Conference

S.T.O.P.S - Standing Together On Public Safety

(CITY OF SOUTH FULTON, GEORGIA, Thursday, October 25, 2018) On Thursday, November 15, 2018 Mayor William Bill Edwards will host S.T.O.P.S (Standing Together On Public Safety), a press conference that will address the City's public safety plan for the Old National Corridor.

The Press conference will take place at New Life Presbyterian Church on 6600 Old National Hwy, Atlanta, GA 30349 at 10:00 A.M.

Public Safety is a priority for the City of South Fulton and due to recent events, the City has targeted Old National Highway as one of its focal points of increased public safety planning. The City invites all community members, businesses and press organizations, as their attendance and partnership is vital to this public safety campaign.

"It's time for us to be very serious about crime," stated Mayor William Bill Edwards. "Crime is not just an issue for our public safety departments, it is an issue for us all. Now is the time to join each other and say no more! Together we are S.T.O.P.S Standing Together On Public Safety."

Following the press conference, Mayor Edwards will also host a Town Hall Public Safety Meeting at Friendship Community Church on 4141 Old Fairburn Road, College Park, GA 30349 at 6:30 P.M. The event will serve as the first in a series of town halls focused on public safety and community engagement.
