City of South Fulton District 2 Councilwoman Carmalitha Gumbs Hosts First Townhall Meeting of the New Year

(CITY OF SOUTH FULTON, GEORGIA, Wednesday, January 16, 2019) On Monday, January 14, 2019, District 2 Councilwoman Carmalitha Gumbs hosted the district's first townhall of the year.

Mayor William "Bill" Edwards presented the State of the City of South Fulton and provided the vision to move South Fulton forward. The townhall also featured a presentation from Police Chief Keith Meadows, who presented Police Department statistics for District 2.

Other presenters included Interim Director of Community & Regulatory Affairs Shayla Reed, who discussed zoning regulations and short-term rentals; Economic Development Administrator Christopher Pike who elaborated on the objectives and future development initiatives of Destination South Fulton, the City's Economic Development arm; and Public Works Director Antonio Valenzuela who explained the delivery of public works services provided by the department.

"It was great to see so many residents at tonight's town hall," stated Councilwoman Gumbs. "I hope it was informative as it highlighted the wonderful things that are truly happening in our great City. As always, I will continue to encourage residents to stay engaged as it's part of building a solid foundation for good government."
