City of South Fulton Mayor William “Bill” Edwards Lights Up the Cascade Corridor

(CITY OF SOUTH FULTON, GEORGIA, January 15, 2019) On Monday, January 7, 2019, City of South Fulton Mayor William “Bill” Edwards worked to make a major lighting improvement along the Cascade corridor.

Thanks to Mayor William “Bill” Edwards’ request to switch on the existing lights on the corridor, through negotiations between Fulton County and Georgia Power, the lights between I-285 and Danforth Road have been turned on. Now that corridor is properly lit and helps to improve safety within the area.

“This valuable asset has been lying dormant for years,” stated Mayor Edwards. “I am so happy to partner with Georgia Power Company and lighting up this corridor. It brings an aesthetic value and allows our residents and businesses to be a little bit safer.”
