City of South Fulton Mayor William “Bill” Edwards Gives Powerful State of the City Address tells Residents the State of the City of South Fulton is Strong

(CITY OF SOUTH FULTON, GEORGIA, May 2, 2019) Mayor William “Bill” Edwards took guests attending the City of South Fulton’s first Inaugural State of the City Address on a road trip down the highway of success and accomplishments last evening at the Southwest Arts Center.

Edwards told attendees the State of the City of South Fulton is strong because of resilient residents who fought for Cityhood and because of partnerships formed between them and their local government. He explained the successes made over the last two years have been the result of residents, elected officials and City staff working together to make the City of South Fulton - “Where You Want to Be.”

Since its incorporation, the City of South Fulton has made outstanding strides to include:

- Establishing the Mayor’s Walk, an event that allows City staff to resolve issues in real time
- Establishing the South Fulton Citizen’s Response Center, a tool that allows residents to report issues to the City while holding employees accountable
- Investing nearly 4 million dollars in infrastructure improvement
- Lowering the City’s crime rate and emergency response times
- Coordinating “Clean Spring Clean-Up Day” (Amnesty Day) to help keep the City of South Fulton’s communities clean

“Our goal is to deliver World Class Services to the citizens of South Fulton. We can’t provide effective services if we do not involve them. We found the most effective governments respond to day to day issues and respond in a timely manner,” Edwards said.
