Sergeant David Tealer Receives Gang Investigator of the Year Award

South Fulton, GA (July 20, 2019) Sergeant Tealer was recognized as the Gang Investigator of the Year for the State of Georgia at the Georgia Gang Investigator's Conference in Savannah, Georgia. The Jose Diaz Investigator of the Year Award is named after the first president of this association and is given to investigators that have impacted investigations throughout the State of Georgia.

Current President Chief Jimmy Callaway of the Georgia Gang Investigators Association offered the following remarks: "South Fulton PD has not been around long, but we certainly recognize the great and innovative work coming out of this agency."

Sergeant Tealer's Investigations have impacted more than 28 different jurisdictions throughout the State of Georgia. He continues to assist in organizing departments around gang investigations in the metropolitan Atlanta area and always has gang education at the forefront of his initiatives.

The City of South Fulton Police Department congratulates Sergeant Tealer for his hard work and dedication to making South Fulton a safer place to live, work and play.
