Bring Out the Dolls Event to Benefit Social Justice Café for Girls

(City of South Fulton, GA – December 6, 2019) City of South Fulton District 2 Councilwoman Carmalitha Gumbs and Aime, LLC. founder Tracy Rolle will host the Third Annual Bring Out the Dolls event on December 12.

The fundraiser started in Orlando, Fla. for a young girl who was bullied because of the way she looked. The goal is to bring a doll in a hue that looks like the giver. Attendees are encouraged to bring a doll or a gift of $40 or more to purchase a doll.

“This initiative aims to help young girls be confident with who they are and accept what they look like,” said Councilwoman Gumbs. “Quinn and the Juke Box Band and Urban Soul will be at the event, so professionals can party with a purpose. Men are encouraged to bring figures that resemble them as well.”

Citizens will be able to enjoy a red-carpet experience, photo booth, doll making station, music and much more. Proceeds from the event will go to Social Justice Café for Girls, a non-profit organization that offers safe spaces for girls of color to discuss social issues and develop into globally-minded Social Justice Girls.

The fundraiser will take place at St. James, Live at 3220 Butner Rd. #240 Atlanta, GA 30331. The red carpet opens at 7:30 p.m. and the event begins at 8 p.m. For more information about the Bring Out the Dolls event, click here. #COSFGA #WhereYouWantToBe
