City of South Fulton Hosts COVID-19 Virtual Health Fair

What: Join the City of South Fulton and Councilwoman Gumbs for a Virtual Health Fair

When: Thursday, February 11 at 6:30 p.m.

Where: View livestream at <http://bit.ly/virtualhealthfair>

Details: There are many questions surrounding the efficacy of the COVID-19 vaccine. Will it work against the variant strains of COVID? Can a person contract COVID if they take the vaccine? A panel of health experts will join Councilwoman Carmalitha Gumbs as she hosts a virtual health fair to discuss the answers to questions about COVID-19 and to dispel myths related to receiving the COVID-19 vaccine.

Host of WCLK's The Local Take Kiplyn Primus will serve as moderator of the COVID-19 Virtual Health Fair. Panelists Dr. Jane Middlebrooks Morgan, director of innovation at Piedmont Healthcare; Dr. Maurice Gobson, historian and associate professor at Georgia State University; Dr. Angela Marshall of the Black Women's Health Imperative; and Dr. John Wayne Wilson, licensed professional counselor will join the conversation.
