Feeding the City of South Fulton Food Distribution Returns Friday

What: Feeding the City of South Fulton Food Distribution

When: Multiple dates and locations: February 26, March 5, and March 19

Where: Welcome All Park (February 26), Creel Park (March 5) and Cliftdale UMC (March 19)

Details: The City of South Fulton is bringing back its Feeding the City of South Fulton initiative, which was created to address food insecurity among residents negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic.

This year, the distributions will move among multiple locations throughout the city with a different location each week.

This Friday, February 26, city staff and volunteers, in partnership with the Atlanta Community Food Bank, will meet at Welcome All Park to distribute food items to families starting at 1 p.m.

To better manage traffic, residents must register and receive arrival times. To register, visit <https://tinyurl.com/cosfgagiveaway> or call (470)-552-4311.
