South Fulton Police Arrest Three on Narcotics Trafficking and Weapons Charges

(City of South Fulton, GA – April 13, 2021) – Working with officers from the U.S. Marshall’s Fugitive Task Force to find a suspect wanted for aggravated assault, City of South Fulton narcotics investigators arrested three men on multiple weapons and drugs charges Monday.

Task force members sought Tory Almond, 44, for aggravated assault, according to South Fulton Police Investigator Shannon McKesey. As officers entered Almond’s home in the Camelot Condominiums on Old National Highway, they found marijuana and cocaine, along with $9,100 in cash and several weapons, two of which were stolen.

South Fulton officers confiscated the narcotics, cash and weapons, along with a 2003 Chevrolet Avalanche. Almond and two other men – Aleeah Leefoguem, 30, and Devonta Clark, 46, were arrested.

Almond and Clark were charged with trafficking cocaine, possession of marijuana with intent to distribute, possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon and theft by receiving a stolen gun. Leefoguem was charged with trafficking cocaine, possession of marijuana with intent to distribute and possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony.
