South Fulton, Partners to Hold Final Cleanup Day before opening of Campbellton Creek Reserve Trail

What: Volunteer Day at Campbellton Creek Nature Preserve

When: Saturday, Sept. 11 – 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Where: Campbellton Nature Preserve - Intersection of Plummer Road and Riverside Drive, South Fulton, GA 30331

Details: As crews prepare to start final work on a new nature trail at the Campbellton Creek Nature Preserve, the City of South Fulton will join MTB Atlanta, the Southeastern Trust and Jacobs for Public Parks and Land for a volunteer cleanup event.

The event will be the last cleanup effort before finishing work starts on the trail. A groundbreaking is planned for later in the month.

“The trail will be an excellent way for families to explore nature together,” said District 1 Councilwoman Catherine F. Rowell. “It also will further efforts to preserve the area’s natural beauty for generations to come.”
