Mayor William “Bill” Edwards Hosts Government & Groceries Community Event

[CITY OF SOUTH FULTON, GEORGIA, July 31st --] Mayor William “Bill” Edwards invites all residents and business owners in the City of South Fulton to join him for Government & Groceries.

Government & Groceries serves as an informal forum for residents and business owners to meet and speak with Mayor Edwards right in front of their local grocery store. Other officials including Senator Donzella James, State Representative Roger Bruce, State Representative Debra Bazemore and State Representative Derrick Jackson, will also be present to listen to community concerns.

“Building a sustainable, responsive and transparent City requires formal and informal dialogue among government officials and their constituents” stated Mayor Bill Edwards. “What better place than one of our community’s grocery stores to have such an informal dialogue.”

Mayor Edwards and other officials will be located right outside of the Kroger grocery store. Come and meet your elected officials in a non-formal setting, feel free to ask questions and share your concerns.
