City of South Fulton District 1 Councilwoman Dr. Catherine Foster Rowell Hosts Quarterly Townhall Meeting

(CITY OF SOUTH FULTON, GEORGIA, Wednesday, September 26) On Monday, September 24, 2018 District 1 Councilwoman Dr. Catherine Foster Rowell hosted a quarterly Townhall Meeting at Decision Point Ministries.

The meeting provided District 1 residents and community stakeholders with updates regarding the transition of the City as well as District 1 projects.

“I am happy to be hosting our quarterly townhall meeting to brief our residents on public safety trends, transportation and T-Splost projects,” stated Councilwoman Catherine Foster Rowell. “I am also excited to get input from our residents on our comprehensive plan updates.”

Panelists included City of South Fulton Police Chief Keith Meadows, who discussed the overall vision for the Police Department as well as crime statistics and trends within District 1 and Tony Phillips, Director of Parks and Recreation, who solicited feedback from residents regarding the improvements to Sandtown Park and future amenities.

Fulton County Director of Transportation Antonio Valenzuela discussed projects including the Danforth and Enon Road sidewalks, the school pedestrian safety project, and Cascade repaving. Shayla Reed, Interim Director of Community Development & Regulatory Affairs, discussed the process that will be used to update the 2035 Comprehensive Development Plan and Land Use Map; as well as efforts to have the Atlanta Regional Commission recognize the Sandtown LCI which has been adopted by the City of South Fulton.
